2022 Transportation Science Meritorious Service Awards

2022 Transportation Science Meritorious Service Awards

We are pleased to announce the recipients of the Transportation Science Meritorious Service Awards. These awards recognize associate editors, special issue guest editors, and reviewers who have offered exceptional service in the review process. We truly appreciate all the efforts of the many volunteers who provide invaluable service to the journal. The 2022 recipients have distinguished themselves by the number of papers handled, their efficiency in handling papers, and the quality of their reviews.
